- Come!

Come to a D-Day, Diaspora-Day, on the occasion of the Mountain Top Forum at Aïn Draham, amidst the Khroumir oak tree forests to take a breath of inspiration and fresh air, and to zen, bond, network and groupthink!

Come to enjoy a two-day program of lectures, discussions and group thinking between friends from Tunisia and all over the world! Extra activities for participants, accompanying family members and friends include evening music concerts at the picturesque village of Beni Metir, country walking, hiking etc...

- Come attend the 2nd edition of the D-Day Forum on the Mountain Top. The Theme for Thought of the 2nd Mountain Top Forum (MTF-2010) will be: “From I.T to E.T” (from Information Technology to Energy Technology).

The Forum will start with general and thematic keynote speeches from star speakers in a plenary session, will separate into discussions, and then end with general conclusions and recommendations in a closing plenary session.

- Star speakers will guide the group thinking by suggesting.
  - Visions,
  - Talking points for the plenary sessions and for the workshops,
  - Tips and guidance on how best to Zen, bond, network and groupthink,
  - Eye-openers on emerging trends,
  - Success stories,
  - Cases in point,
  - Policies and how-to's.
- The Forum coincides with a Chopin Piano Award Contest for children and young people (2nd edition) at Béni Métir. Participants may also take advantage of the shuttle to Dar Ismaïl Tabarka (beach side) and continue to contemplate the beautiful sceneries offered by the Aïn Draham-Tabarka region on Sun. 25 July 2010.
